

BIG TEENS

Course Description

- Secondary Students from 13 to 15 years old
- 3 levels (20-50 / A1/B1)
- Communicative Constructivist language acquisition process

Features songs, chants, social practices, strategies, cooperative learning, self-assessment, and hands-on projects. Big Teens contains discovery activities and additional contextualized practice activities to help students construct the language. Big Teens is written by Mario Herrera, one of the best and respected names in ELT whose books are used by millions of students around the world.

Methodology

The methodology is communicative constructivist language acquisition process.

- Clear and easy to use
- Promotes project-like tasks
- Promotes 21st century skills
- CLIL- Content and Language Integrated Learning
- Assessment for learning

Physical and Digital Resources for Teachers and Students

Student

- Student Book
- Workbook
- Audios (online)

Teacher

- Teacher's Book interleaved
- Audios
- 9 Posters, 1 per unit
- 2 Flashcards, 8 per unit
- Printable resources (Vocabulary, Grammar, Process Writing, XXI Century Skills Projects)
- ActiveTeach

Tips for teaching anytime and anywhere using the program

Hybrid

- There are many digital materials to reinforce grammar and vocabulary.
- Teachers can use the Big Teen Magazine section to promote autonomy.
- Teachers can use the resources of the XXI century skills project.

Digital

- Use the active teach to make the digital experience more meaningful and interactive.
- Students can use the online audios to work on their listening skills.
- Student can listen and practice the songs to improve pronunciation.

Face to face

- There are two speaking activities per page to promote communication among students-- Skills development and motivation.